

Under the MOU between the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore (CAAS) and the Latin American Civil Aviation Commission (LACAC) first signed in 1998, and last renewed in 2016, 22 fellowships a year are provided for selected SAA programmes. Details of the fellowship terms and application procedures are appended below.

Terms of Fellowships

The Government of Singapore will bear the training fees, daily allowance of Sixty Singapore Dollars (S$60) and hotel accommodation for participants accepted for the programmes. Complimentary breakfast will be provided at the hotel and lunch at SAA during training days.

Hotel accommodation will be provided for the training duration, i.e. one day before course commencement (after 2 pm) and one day after the course (till 12 noon). Daily allowance will be limited to the training duration, i.e. from the start of the course up to the last day of the course. Expenses to be incurred for stay beyond this duration will not be covered. Participants are advised to secure their own overseas travel insurance to cover themselves for the period of the training in Singapore.

Application Procedures

The fellowships are intended for participants nominated by their respective Governments. Nominating Governments should preferably nominate not more than 2 candidates for each course and indicate which candidate should take priority if more than one candidate is nominated.

Applications should be made online at <http://www.saa.com.sg/fellowships>. Before proceeding with online application, Nominating Governments should complete and endorse a 1-page Nomination Form. Please click here to download Nomination form. The PDF copy of this Nomination Form needs to be submitted as part of the online application. All applications should be submitted online by the stated closing dates. However, should applicants prefer to complete a hardcopy application form, they can request for the form from SAA or LACAC Secretariat. All applications should be submitted by the stated closing dates.
